Conservation, now a popular theme on the national scene, has become a favorite stand for American youth. For the concerned student interested in the preservation of nature's wonders, a keener awareness of ecological problems is both relevant and timely. To incorporate such a theme in a yearbook shows concern and vision on the part of our yearbook staff.

Spring Supplement

"Nature gathers up the fragments that nothing be lost."

"Every part of nature teaches that the passing away of one life is the making room for another."

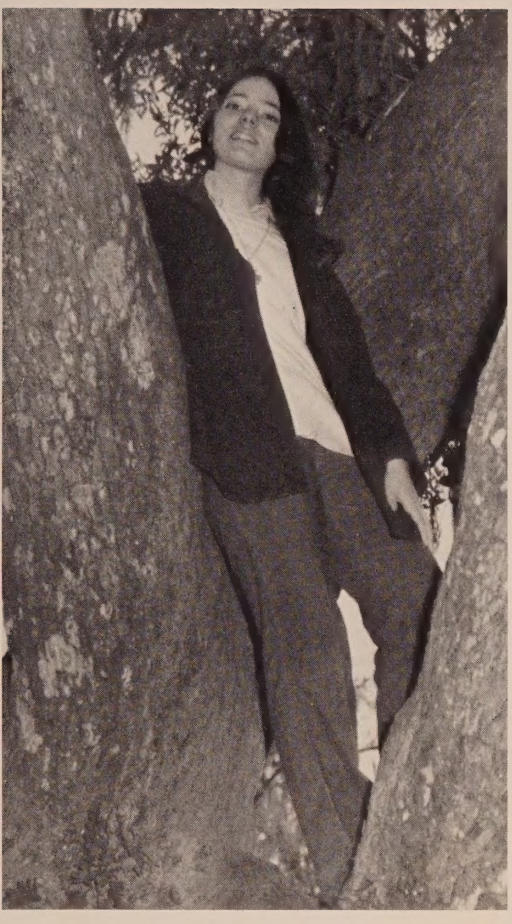
INDIVIDUAL RECOGNITION

You must not know too much, or be too precise or scientific about birds and trees and flowers and watercraft; . . .

Walt Whitman

Miss Vernon

With her beauty and talent on the 19th of April, 1972, Sally Pelfrey captured the title of Miss Vernon. For her talent she sang "Bless the Beasts and the Children." Sally went to compete in the Peanut Festival and was awarded the State Trooper of Dixie Badge by the Chief of Police. She was chosen for this award by the police at the festival.
Senior beauties are Ann Bonasera (top far rt going clockwise) Cathy Armstrong, Tina Santiago and Vera Owens.



"Nature gives to every time and season some beauties of its own."

"There are more men ennobled by study than by nature."

"Nature is man's teacher."

Mr. VHS is Charles Bush and Miss VHS is Anita Russ. Both have attended all twelve years of school here at Vernon. Charles is president of the Spanish Club and is a four year letterman in football and basketball. Anita is president of YEA and has been a cheerleader four years. They were chosen through student balloting.

"Friendship is a plant of slow growth . . ."

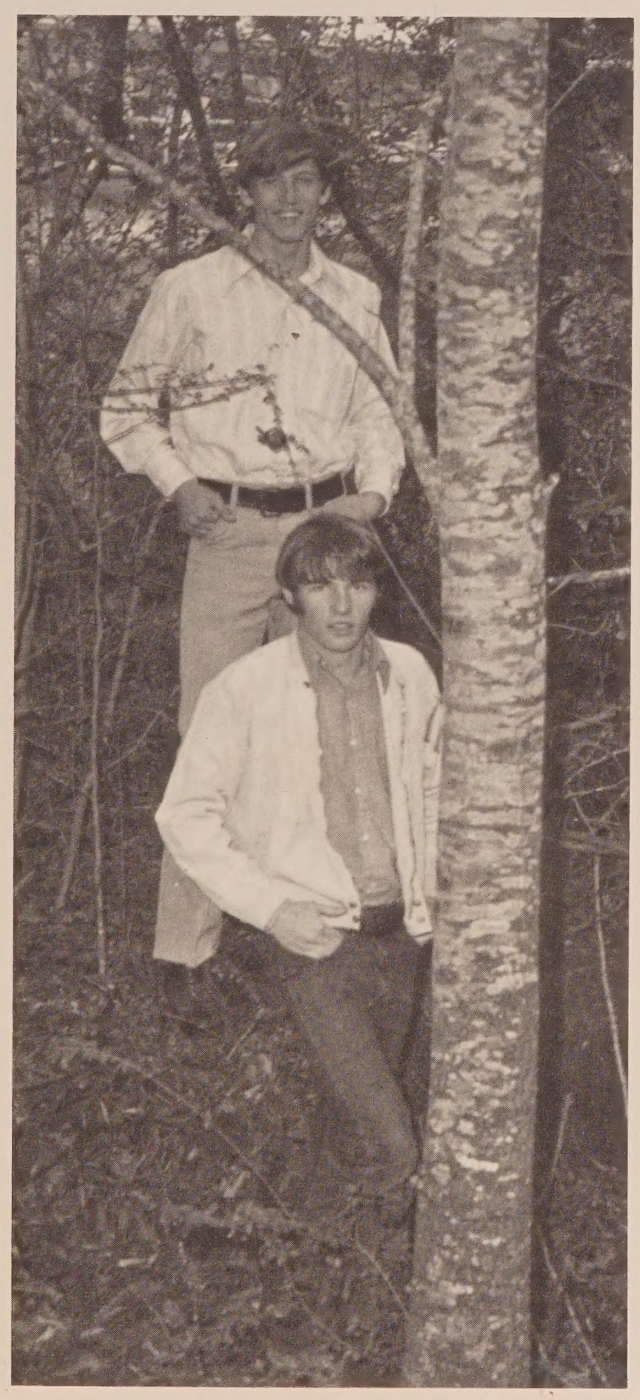
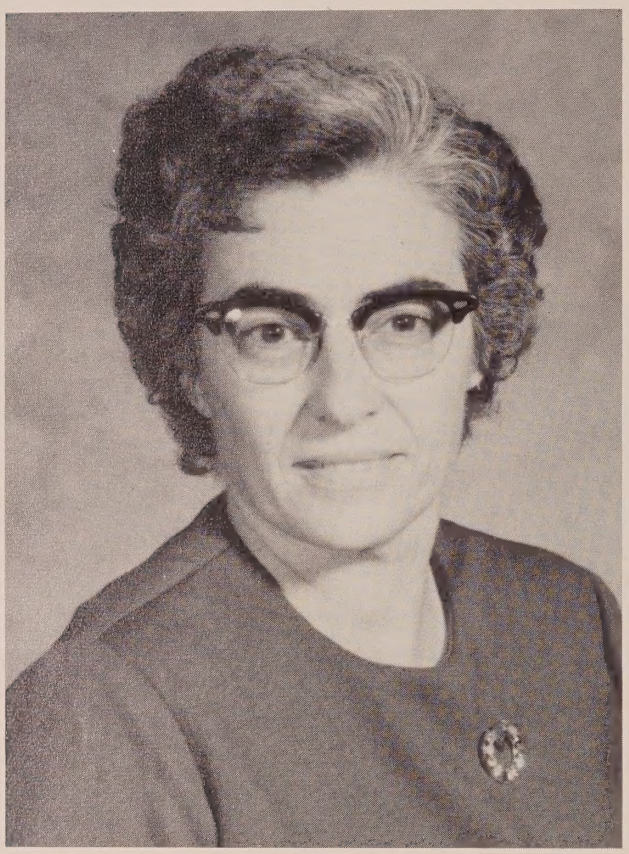
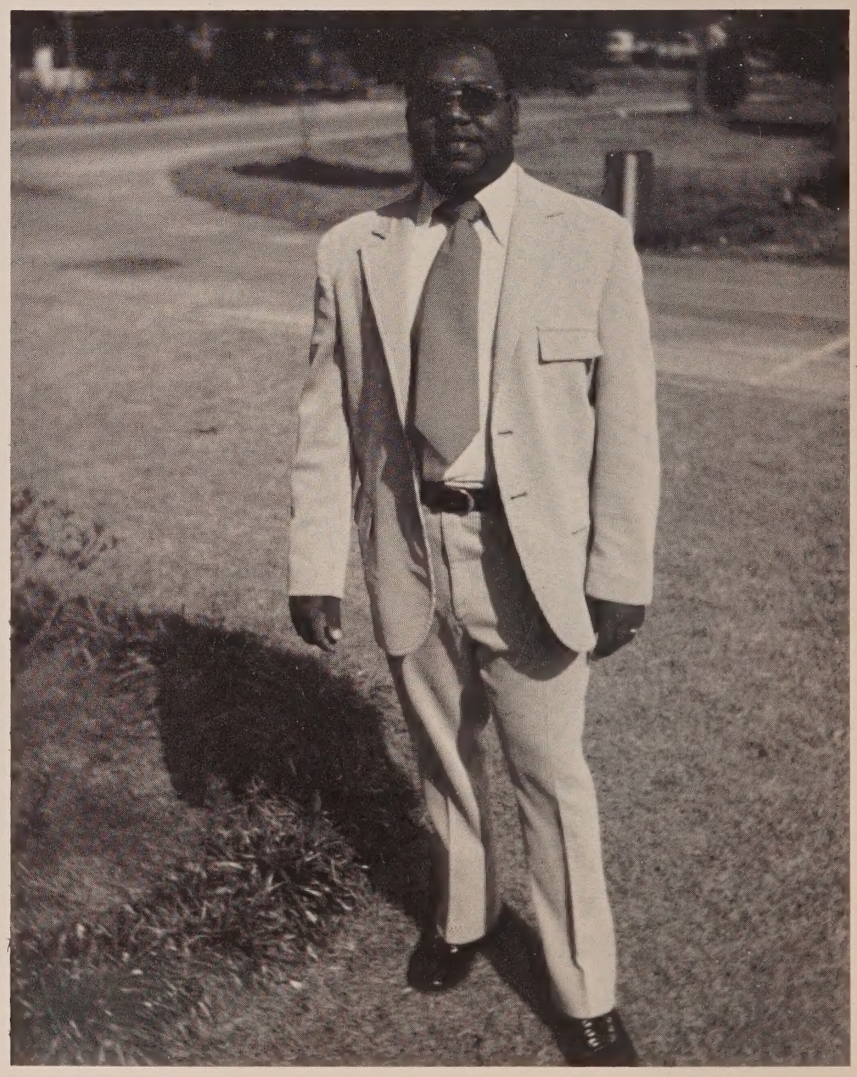
"Light! Nature's resplendent robe; without whose vesting beauty all were wrapt in gloom."



The Senior Hall of Fame is made up of Seniors nominated and voted on by the faculty. They were chosen for leadership, achievements, and contributions made here at VHS. Whether in academics, clubs, or athletics they have excelled. Those in the Senior Hall of Fame are Stan Owens (lt and going clockwise) president of Student Council and defensive captain of football team; Owen Kirkland who has lettered in all four sports this year and is an Outstanding Teenager of America; Teresa Dykes, editor of the "Jacket Sting" and senior class secretary; Glenn Weber, senior class president and a State Farmer; Anita Russ, co-captain of the varsity cheerleaders and president of YEA; Charles Bush, Mr. VHS and Outstanding Teenager of America; Luke Ward, president of FFA and senior class parliamentarian; and Mary Bush, vice president of DECA and an Outstanding Teenager of America.

"Great oaks from little acorns . . ."





Mrs. Doris Newsom (above) is among faculty receiving kudos this year. She was voted best teacher in the school by the student body. Mr. Arthur Reed, (right) was runner-up in the YEA contest. Mr. Irving Roche is retiring after thirty-five fruitful years in the teaching profession, thirty of which were spent in Vernon High School.

ORGANIZATIONS

You shall enter the living shelter of the forest.
You shall walk where only the wind has walked before.

Nancy Newhall

"The earth belongs to the energetic"

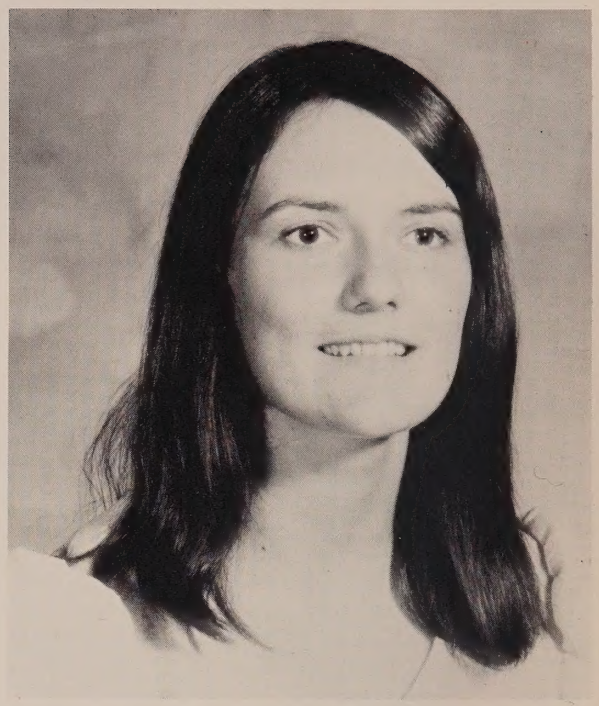
YEA
Devotional Club

Officer of YEA (rt) are Historian Joyce Pelfrey, Parliamentarian Gill Elmore, Secretary Carol Stubbs, Reporter Charlotte Hicks, Chaplain Sammie Mitchell, Student Council Representative Cindy Bush, Vice President Lucille Smith, Treasurer Charles Bush, and President Anita Russ.

"The earth's a stage which God and nature do with actors fill."

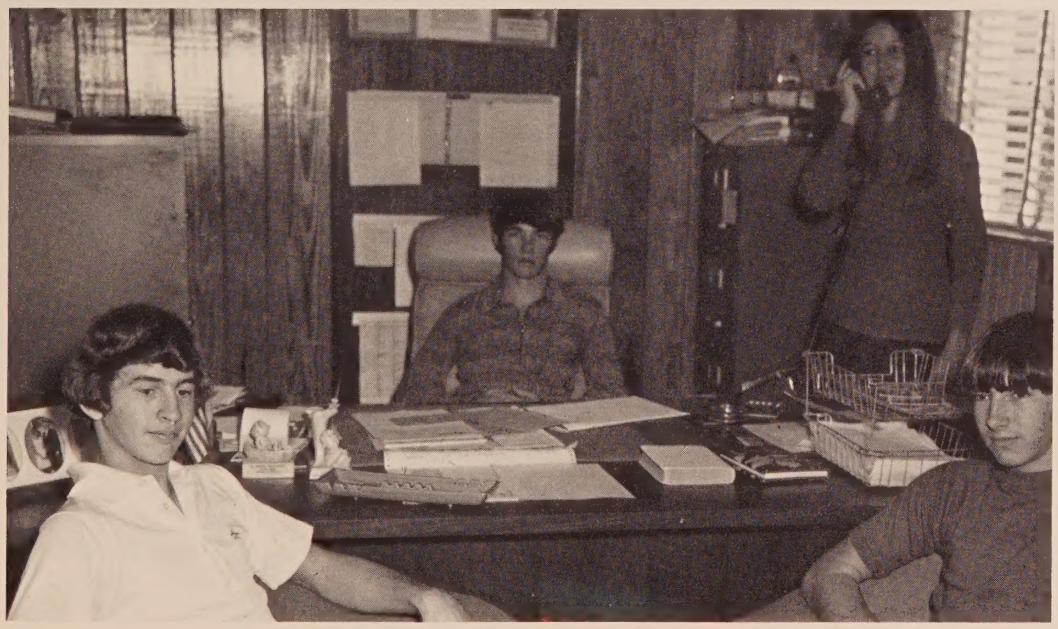
The Youth Education Association (far lt) gets students involved in seeking solutions to problems facing education today. It also enables the student to work with the different parts of the teaching profession in hopes of improving education. The club is sponsored by Mrs. Elsner (top far lt). The Devotional Club (above) provides the student with some spiritual experience while in school and each Friday the club provides the student body with the devotional (lt). Its officers are President Marsha Mitchell, Vice President Penny Smith, Secretary Cathy Armstrong, Student Council Representative Becky Dykes and Reporter Mary Bush.



"Literature has nourished every youth, and is old as nature."

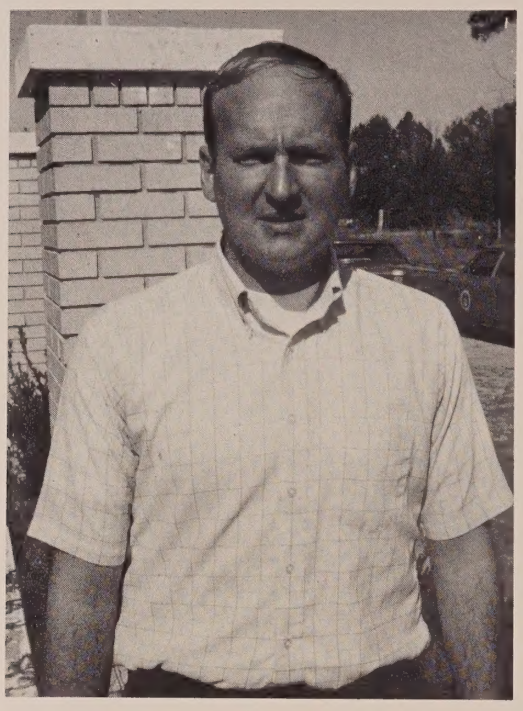
The Paper Staff publishes "The Jacket Sting," our school newspaper, and programs for various organizations during the year. Mr. Roche sponsors the Paper Staff. Brenda Phillips (lt and going clockwise) is the art editor; Rosetta Davis, alumni editor, Sally Pelfrey, sports editor; Evilla Smith, business manager; Teresa Dykes, editor; Debbie Douglas, assistant editor, and Vera Owens, feature editor.

The Student Council has extended the doctrine of responsibility, personal growth, self-discipline and good citizenship; and promoted a harmonious relationship between the student body and faculty here at VHS. The leadership needed was found in the officers (far rt, lt to rt): Vice President Tommy Bush, President Stan Owens, Secretary-Treasurer Sherry Austin, and Parliamentarian Anthony Reynolds. The advisor, Mrs. Whitehurst (rt), always keeps the Council on the move.



"Whatever you are by nature, keep to it; never desert your own line of talent."

"I am the Poem of the Earth said the rain . . ."



Mr. Phil Flater, adviser (top l. above), Gill Elmore, Horace Hewett, Andy Ellis, Mary Bush, Denise Clark, and Marie Lombardi are members of Senior Math Club (center above). Mr. Welch sponsors the Junior Math Club (above).

Mrs. Rogers sponsors the Jr. Literary Club.

Members (top far rt) Tommy Kirkland, Cheryl Boswell, Tammy Ellis, Patricia Hodges, Steve Nichols, David Parish, George Weber, Bobby Street, (sitting) Carol Shipley, Merle Campbell, Keteiva Bishop, and Jeffery Outler.

Miss McCommas (above) sponsors the Spanish Club. President Charles Bush and Vice President Carol Stubbs (lt) performs a Spanish dance for the other members.

Camera Club
Sr. and Jr. Physical Fitness

"Light is nature's symbol of truth."

With the purpose to bring interest in all phases of photography, the Camera Club (above) is doing just that. It is sponsored by Mr. Simmons and officers are President James Park, Vice President Harrell Hammond, Secretary Tim Redmon, Student Council Representative Teresa Passantino, Reporter Angie Dixon and Parliamentarian Gary Folmar. The Senior Physical Fitness Club (top far rt) and Junior Physical Fitness Club (bottom far rt) strive to help youth develop interest in all kinds of athletics and appreciate the importance of good health and fitness. Coach Mac Alford and Coach Jerry Evans (lt) sponsor these clubs.

Junior and Senior Pep Club
National Honor Society

"It is a beautiful necessity of our nature to love something."

They keep spirits high at all sporting events, the Junior Pep Club (above) and the Senior Pep Club (far lt). Both clubs are sponsored by Mrs. Mitchell. With membership based upon scholarship, service, leadership, and character the National Honor Society works to stimulate and promote these qualities. Members (at lt) are Glenn Weber, Mary Bush, Stan Owens, Gill Elmore, Anita Russ and Charles Bush.

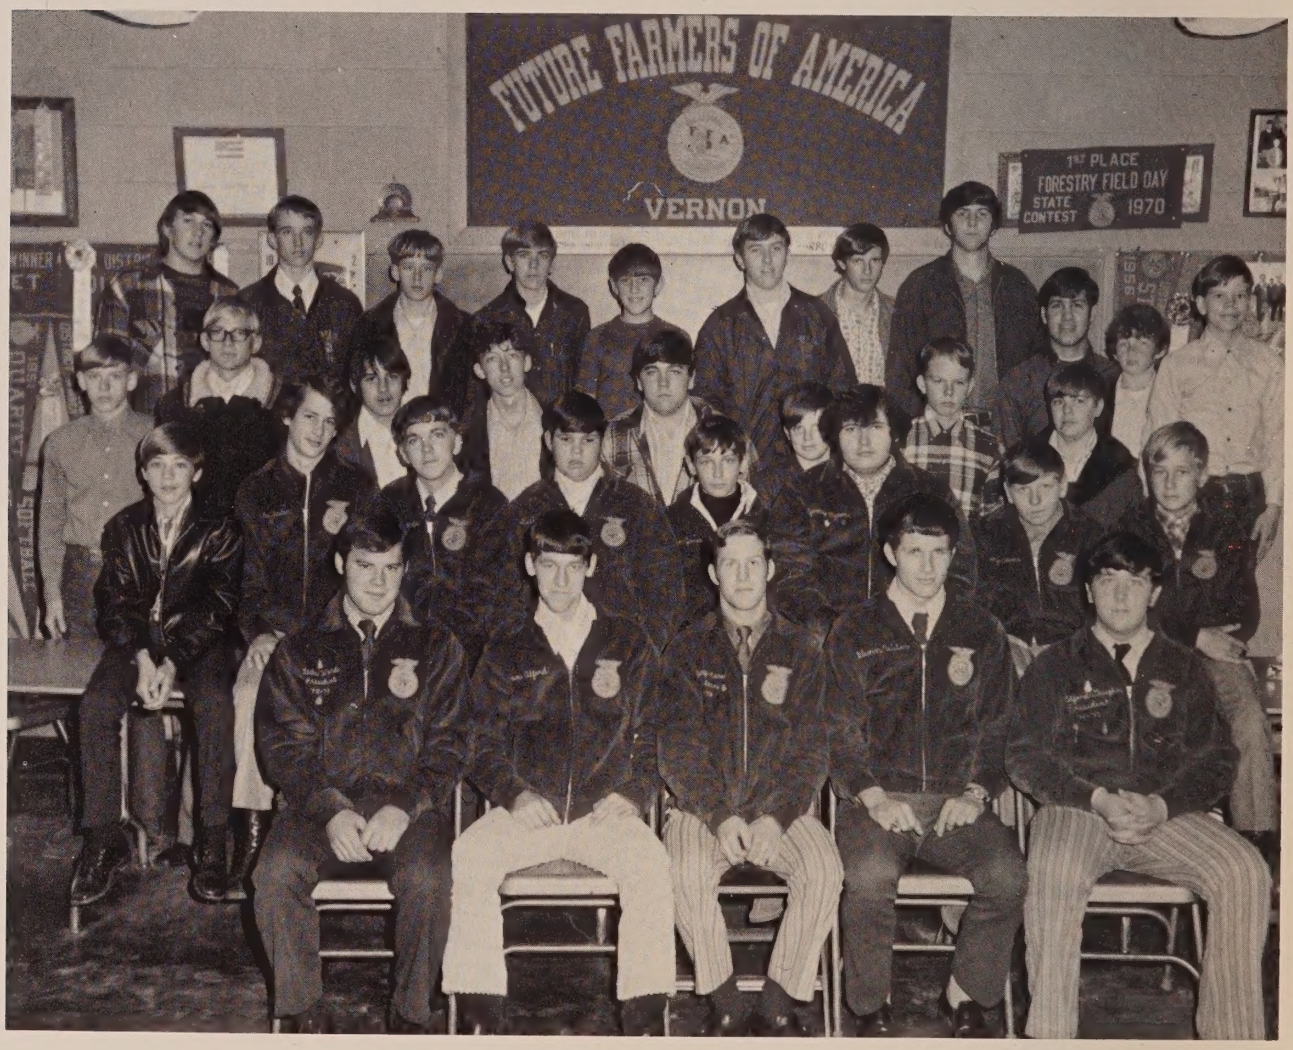
"Nature is the most thrifty thing in the world . . ."

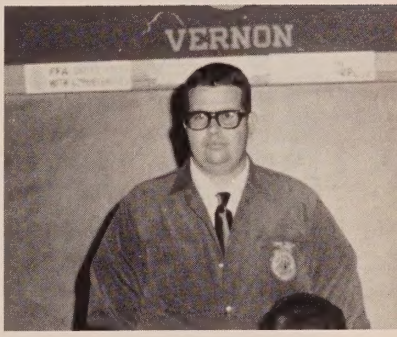
With the purpose of helping the individual improve personal, family and community living now and in the future there is much to be done by the FHA (top lt). Their work ranges from providing a nursery for children during PTA meetings to presenting T.V. programs. The chapter received the State Outstanding Chapter Award, won first place with their exhibit at the National Peanut Festival, had the first place float in the Homecoming Parade, and were presented an award by National Foundation of March of Dimes.

The FHA officers (standing) are Vice President Shirley Haddock, Vice President of Projects Donna Lee, President Frances Tharp, Reporter Angie Dixon, Advisor Mrs. Pauline Cook, Historian Sammie Mitchell, Vice President of Achievement Programs Charlotte Chesnut, Parliamentarian Vicki Owens and Secretary-Treasurer Lynn Dixon. Mrs. Cook also sponsors the Florettes (lt). The club teaches horticulture and practice conservation. Its officers are President Donna Lee, Vice President Mary Street, Secretary Frances Tharp, Treasurer Angela Passantino, Student Council Representative Diane Redmon, and Reporter Susan Cone.

"He who plants a tree plants hope."

President Luke Ward (rt) receives the 1972 Distinguished Service Citation from Mrs. Dorthy DaValt, President of the Florida Education Association and member of the Board of Keep Florida Beautiful, Inc.





The Vernon FFA's Superior Chapter this year has produced three State Farmers (above) Glenn Weber, Wilford Vaughn and Luke Ward. Gary Folmar is the Star Greenhand. The chapter has the District I Champion Log Sawing Team and received area and state "Building Our American Community" award. Their entry in 1972 "Keep America Beautiful" brought them a runner-up in the 1972 KAB Awards Program. Mr. Dozier B. Hendry (top rt) is the advisor. Luke Ward (lt) places the citation in the trophy case.

"Read nature; nature is a friend to truth."

With the purpose of giving students insight on the functions and privileges of the library Mrs. Cornelia Brown (rt) sponsors the Junior Library Club (below) and the Senior Library Club.

ATHLETICS

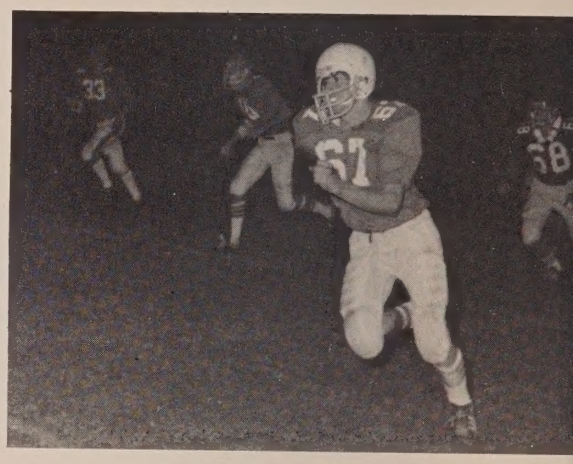
In this fresh evening each blade and leaf looks as if it had been dipped in an icy liquid greenness.

David Thoreau

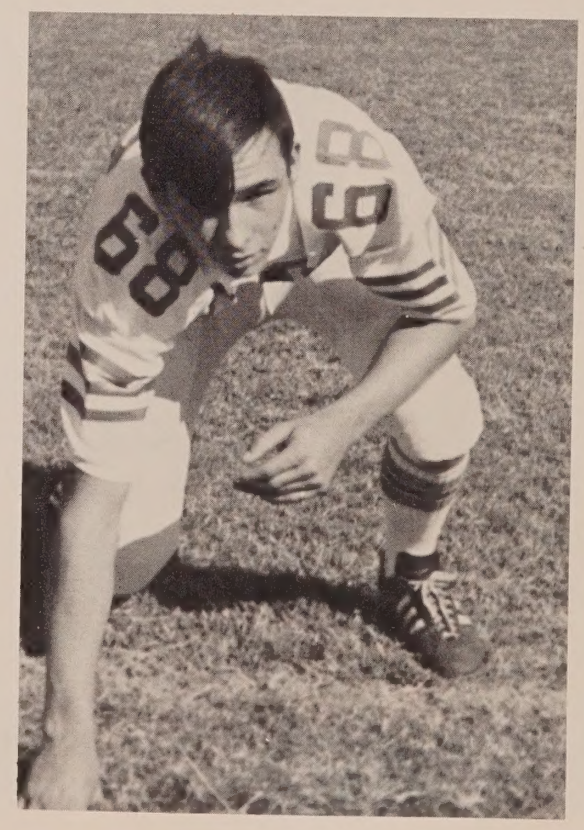
"Flowers are nature's jewels . . ."

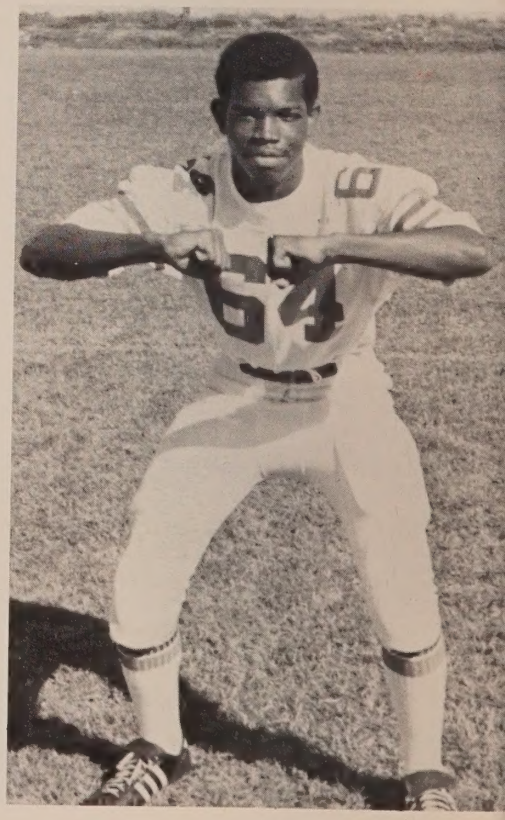
The junior cheerleaders keep spirits high at junior football and basketball. The cheerleaders (below) are Captain Sheila Owens (back row lt.), Margaret Casey, Pam Jackson, Naomi Pettis, Co-captain Myra Pettis, Jodi Mathis, Patti Padgett, and Nancy Russ. Mrs. Mitchell (lt) sponsors both junior and varsity cheerleaders.

The '72 Vernon Yellow Jackets had the most impressive start of any Vernon High football team in years, winning three of the first five games, falling to Blounstown 3-0 and Bonifay 8-0. By the fifth game the offense started moving the ball and rolled over Walnut Hill 32-0. After that fifth game Vernon's defense moved into the top 10 in class 2-A, giving up less than 7 points a game. That "State" dream did not seem so far away then. But October 20, the Jackets met the Black Cats . . .

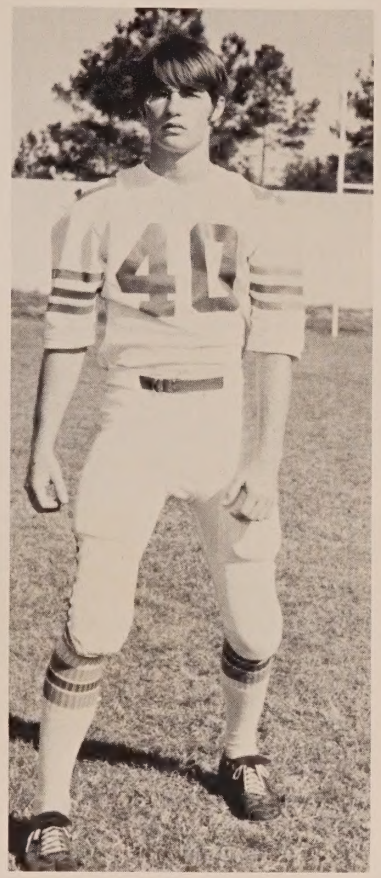


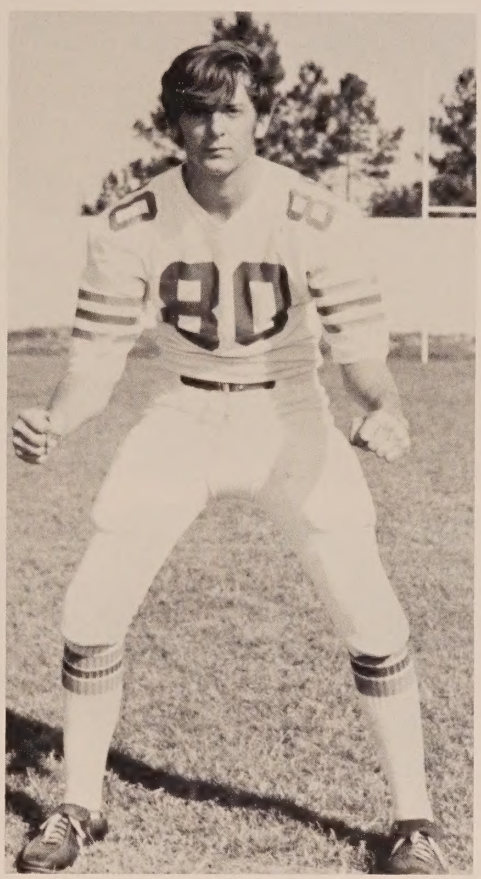
Linebacker Wayne Anglin (top lt) saw much action for a freshman. Bruce Syfrett, senior tackle (going clockwise) helped control the left side of that offensive line. Tight end Owen Kirkland has to block and catch. Defensive Captain Stan Owens fights against the pass from his corner back position. Gene Davidson, tackle, was small but quick and aggressive. Sophomores Robert Brown and Keith Bishop saw action at linebacker.





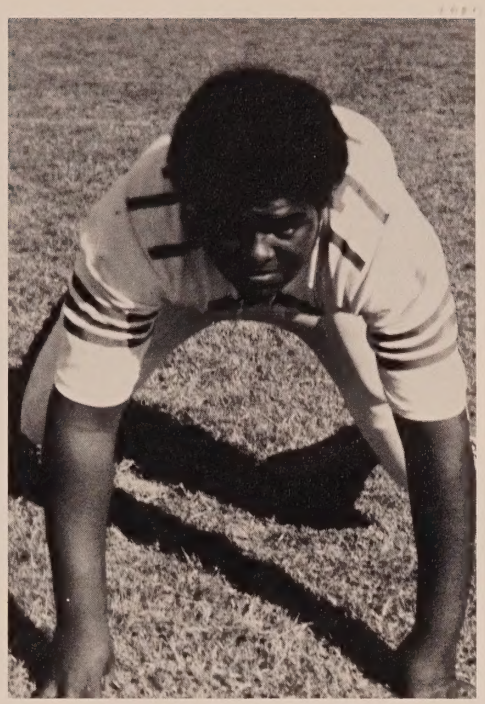
"Nature's most pleasant dreams sometimes turn into nightmares . . ."

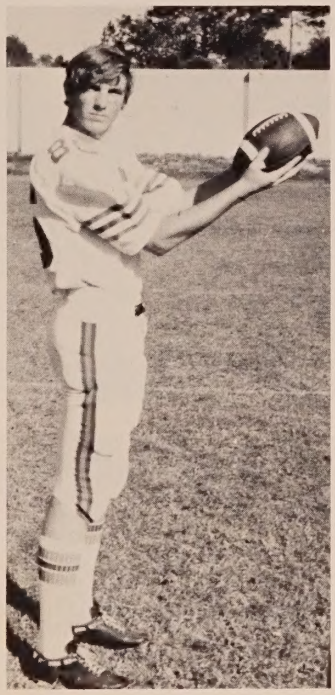


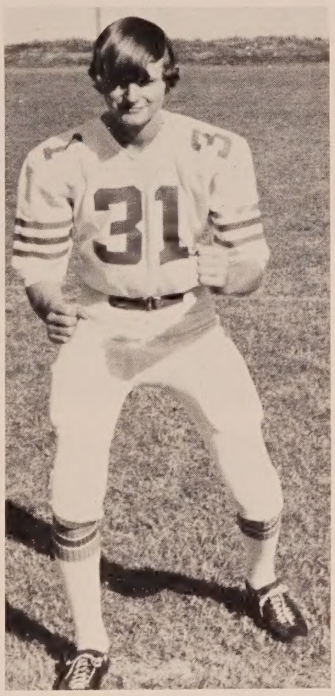


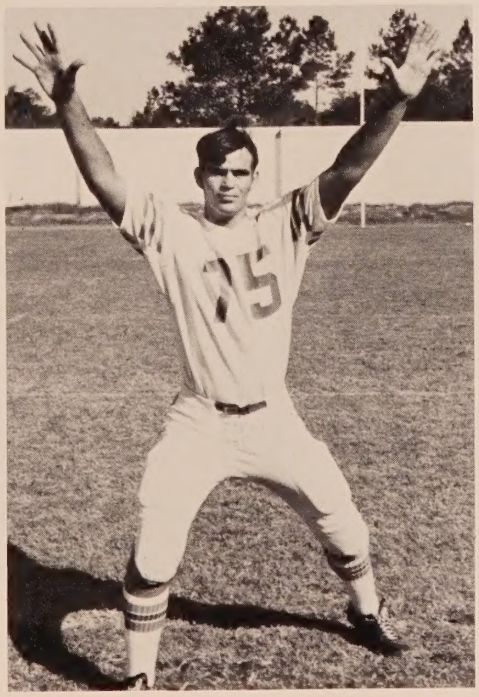
The "Big Orange's"
Offense

Two of the "Big Orange's" offensive linemen are center Mark Alford (top lt) and guard Jamie Chesnut (top rt). The Jackets have ten seniors: Gary Hard, Owen Kirkland, Gene Davidson, Dewey Mitchell, Bruce Syfrett, Stan Owens and (kneeling) Charles Bush, Harrell Hammond, Robin Chesnut and Jamie Chesnut.









Head Coach John Bernheim (above), the spark that's bringing a winning spirit back to VHS. Defensive tackle Aaron Peterson (top rt) will return for the '73-'74 season, along with end Lynn Haddock (center lt), back Doug Reddick (center rt) and tackle Jim Miller (bottom).

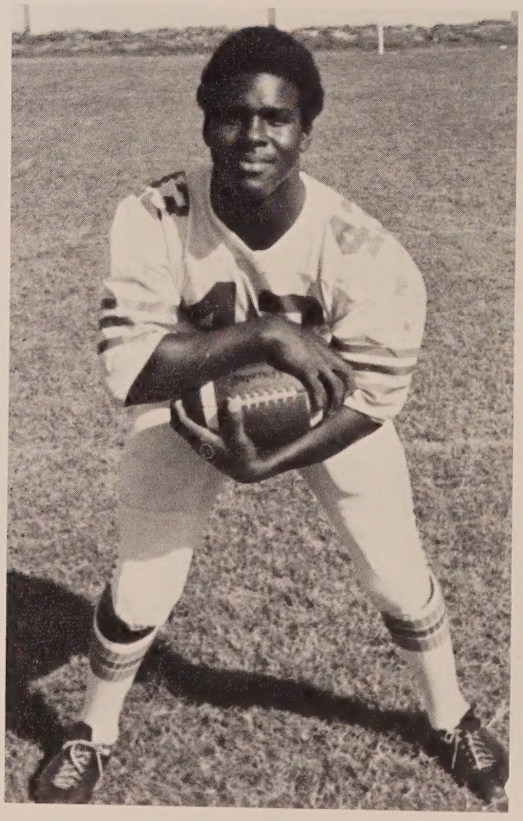
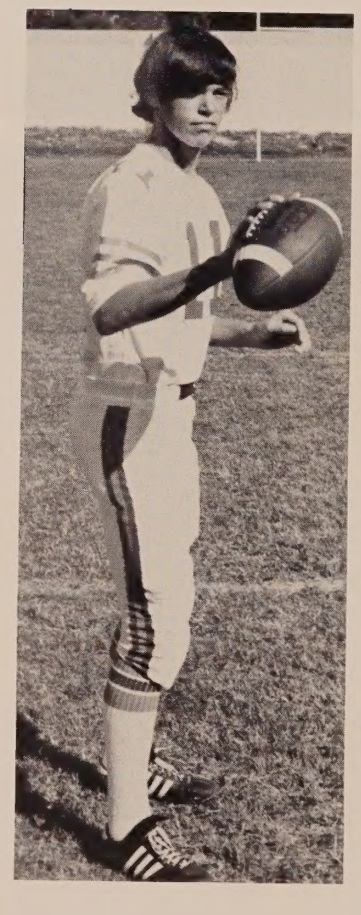
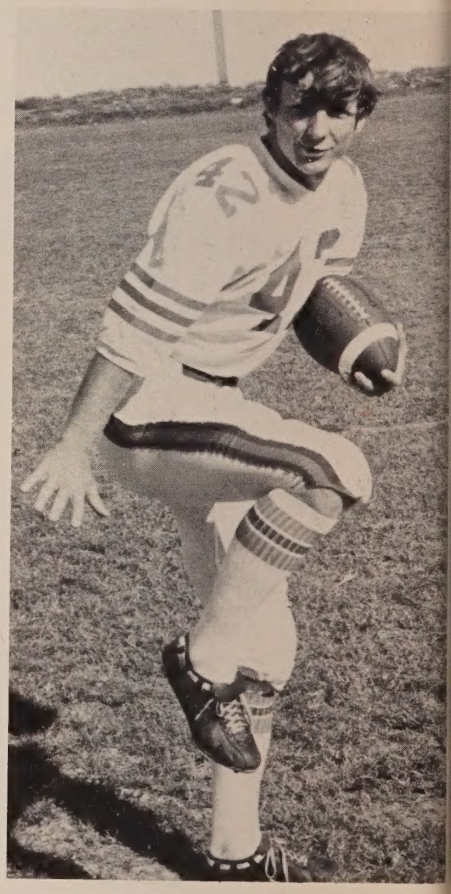
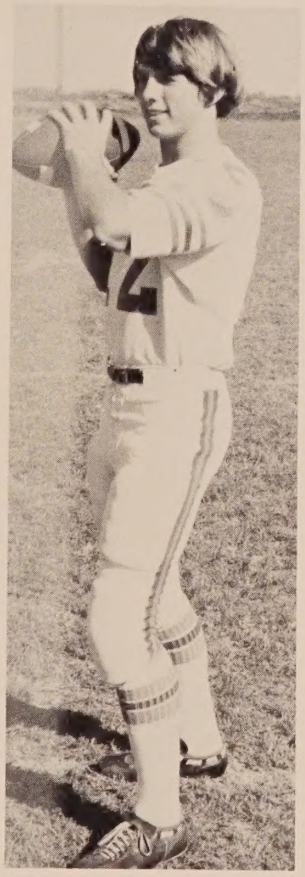
Sophomore Keith Adkison (top far lt then going clockwise) at his offensive guard position is powerful on the sweep. Offensive Coach Mac Alford and Defensive Coach H. T. Waller are able to get the most out of their units. Roy Rogers bulldogs many opponents on the line of scrimmage at tackle. Center Dennis Register controls the middle of the defensive line. With the ability to use his blockers Mike Reeves always finds a hole. Mike Park will return next year to play more strong linebacker with Tommy Bush and those dazzling catches.

Tony "Bull" Smith (bottom from lt to rt) runs from his fullback position like his name. Sophomore quarterback Mike Park has the potential to be a great leader on the field. Halfback Dewey Mitchell runs wild but gets the yardage. Harrell "Musso" Hammond runs hard and uses his blockers well. Charles Bush is the offensive captain and from his position at quarterback he runs the show. Senior linebacker Robin Chesnut is a hard hitter. Gary Hard loves contact and he gets plenty of it at tackle.









"Nature is sometimes subdued, but seldom extinguished."

These girls keep up school spirit even when we're down. The Varsity Cheerleaders are Captain Linda Keller (far lt and going clockwise), Teresa Suggs, Cindy Bush, Co-captain Anita Russ, Connie Haskins, Sammie Mitchell and Sherry Austin.

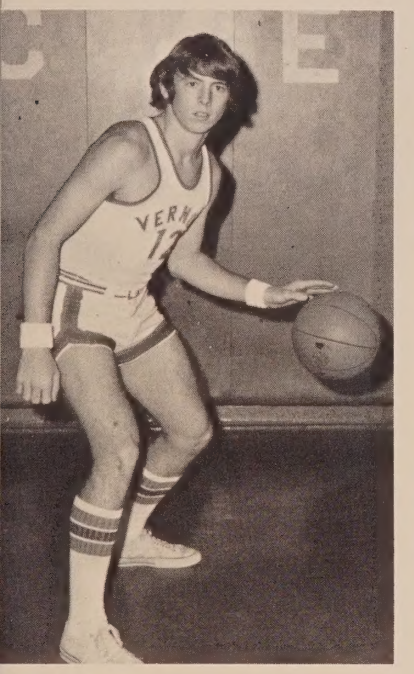
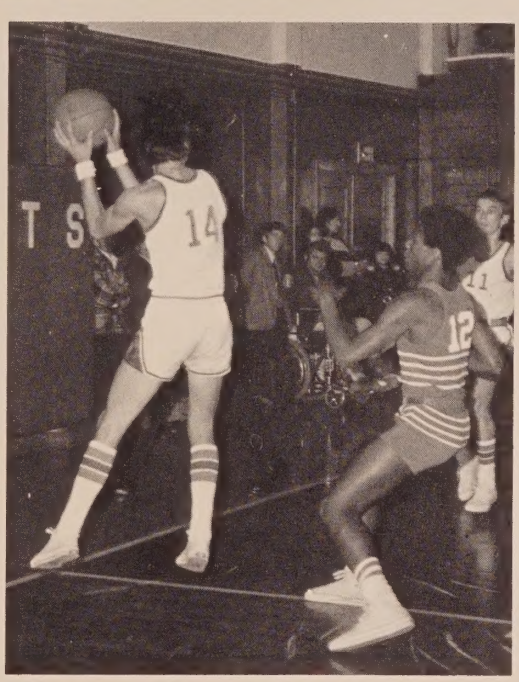
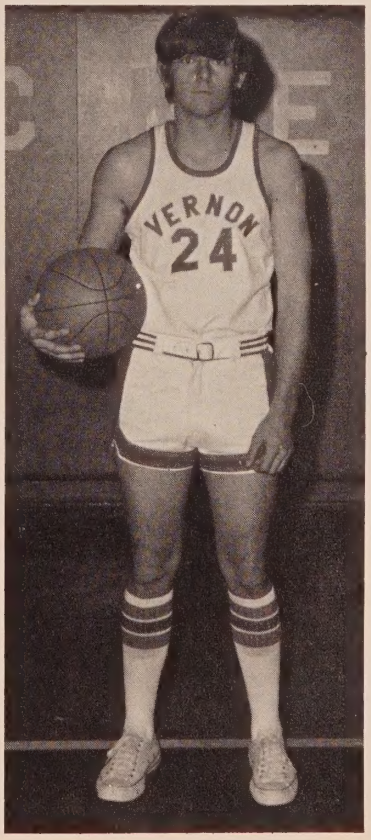
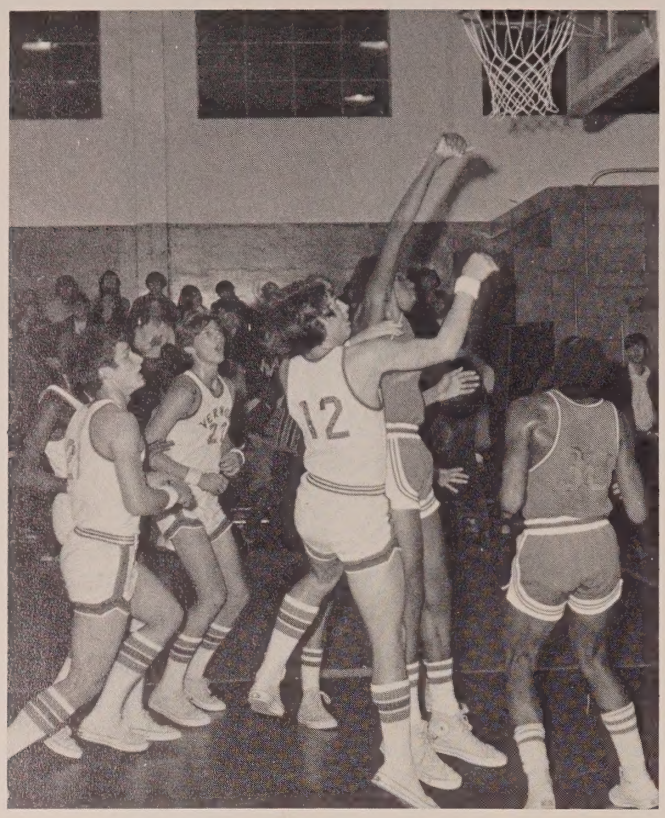
"Natural abilities are like natural plants . . ."

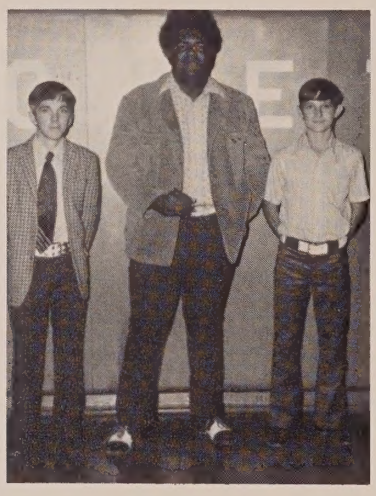
During a rebuilding year full of tough competition Vernon has had many disappointments. After the first eight games the Vernon Jackets only had two wins but the ninth game was a victory that will be long remembered. Tommy Bush's two free throws beat Chattahoochee with 2 seconds on the clock. The next wins came much later in the season when Grand Ridge was beaten 61-60, Bonifay 61-51 and Grand Ridge again. The winning streak was stopped by Cottondale's 2-point victory in the closing seconds. The last game of the season the Jackets beat Bethlehem 73-64 with Owen Kirkland getting 24 points and Lynn Haddock 23 points. Head Coach Warren Buck (top far lt) is in his first year at VHS. Phillip Boone (top near lt) plays out front for the Jackets and likes to gun it. Three year letterman Charles Bush (lt) plays strong on both ends of the court. Gene Davidson (below) sees action as both guard and forward.











Behind the scenes in Vernon basketball are its managers and stat man, Robert Miles, Aaron Peterson and Eddie McClain (above lt). The graduating Jackets (top) are Phillip Boone, Owen Kirkland, Glenn Weber, Gene Davidson, Wade Brown, and Charles Bush. Wade Brown (top far rt) has a strong defensive game. High jumping Glenn Weber (rt) plays inside for the Jackets. Tommy Bush (far rt.) is the playmaker.

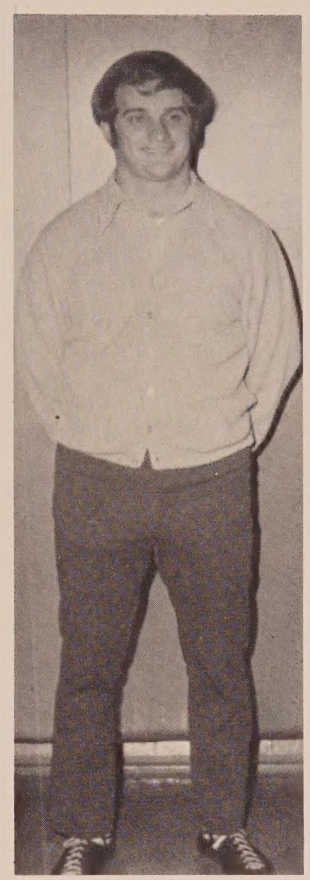
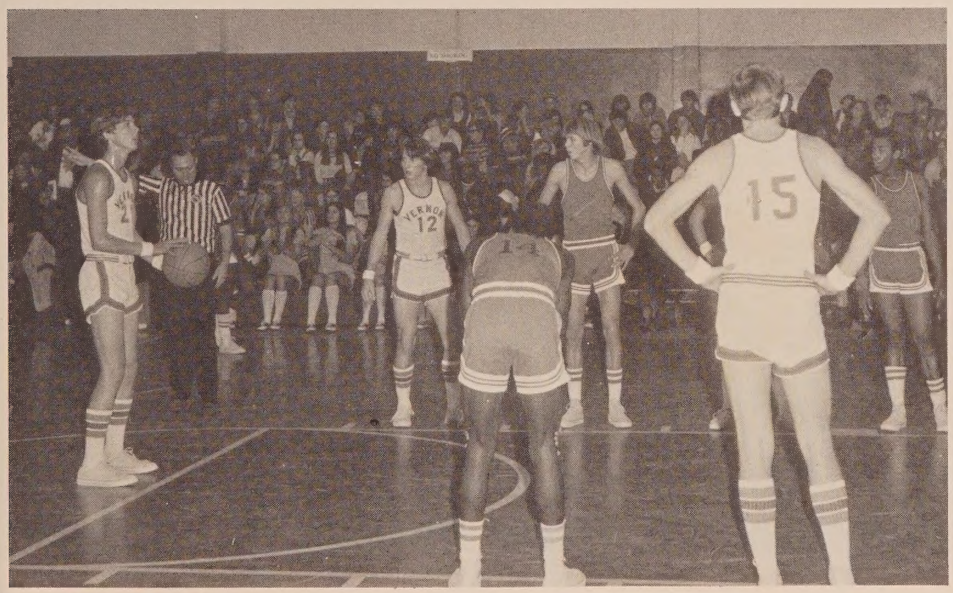
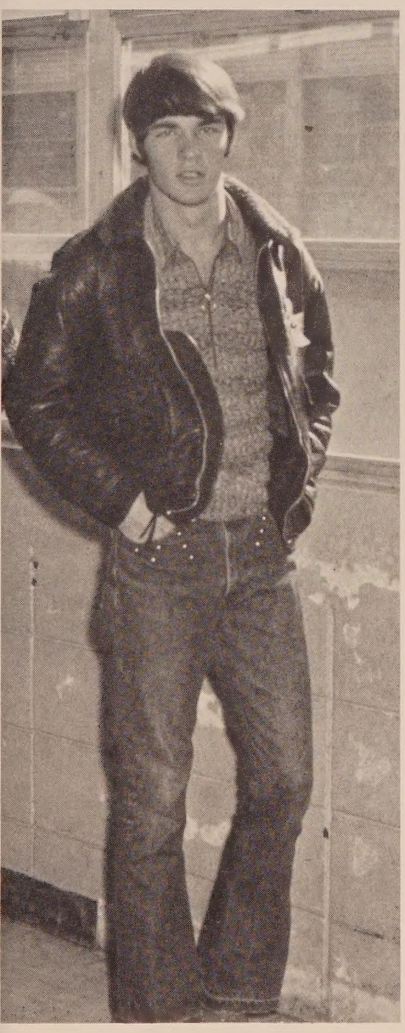
The Junior Varsity (lt) improves with each game and add experience. They are (standing) Tony Smith, Jim Brande, Allen Price, Bobby Haddock, Cloudie Brown, Greg Nelson, Mike Park, Tommy Miles (kneeling) Andrew Horne, Keith Adkison, Frankie Chesnut, Louis Brown and John Jackson. They are coached by Coach Evans.



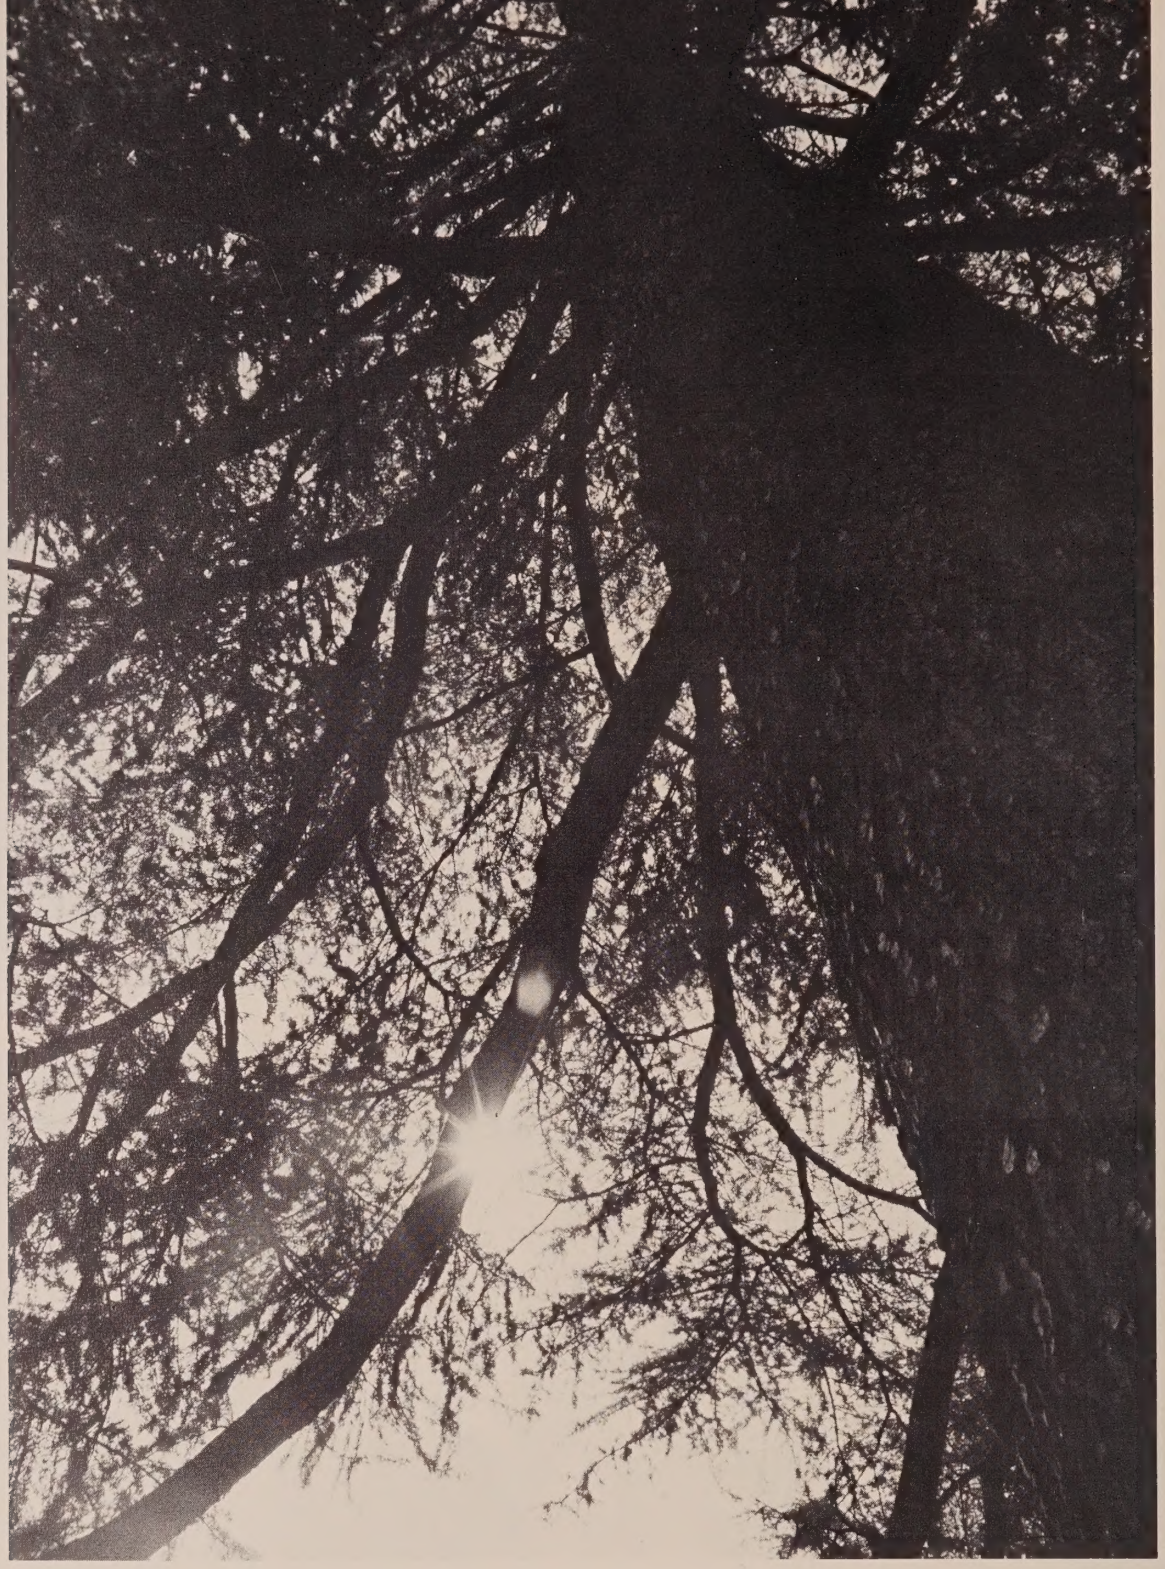


Owen Kirkland (far lt) stays up on the boards and is strongest on rebounds. Junior guard Hollis Jackson (from lt to rt) handles the ball and plays defense. Greg Boone plays forward and gets his share of the rebounds. Lynn Haddock can do it all. This 6′3″ junior will be back to play his colorful style of basketball again next season.

" . . . beauty is its own excuse for being."



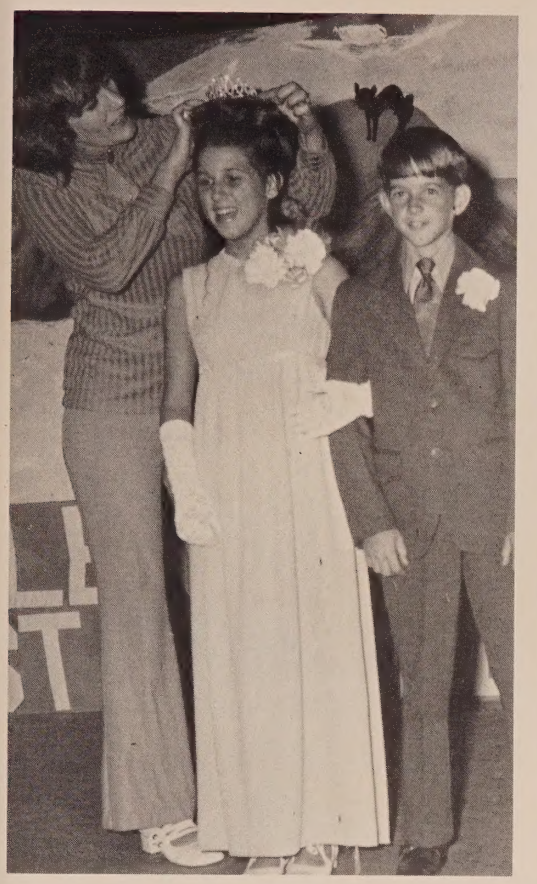
Powder Puff football lets the girls show their stuff. But it was a cold night in November when they got their chance. The White Team, coached by Mr. Alford, beat the Blue Team, coached by Coach Evans, 20 to 0 with scoring led by Priscilla Peterson's three touchdowns. A part of the half-time festivities was the crowning of the Powder Puff King. Luke Ward was first runner-up and Stan Owens (lt) was crowned king. Stan was nominated by Ann Bonasera of the Blue Team.



ACTIVITIES

It is true, I never assisted the sun materially in its rising;
but, doubt not, it was of the last importance only to be present at it.

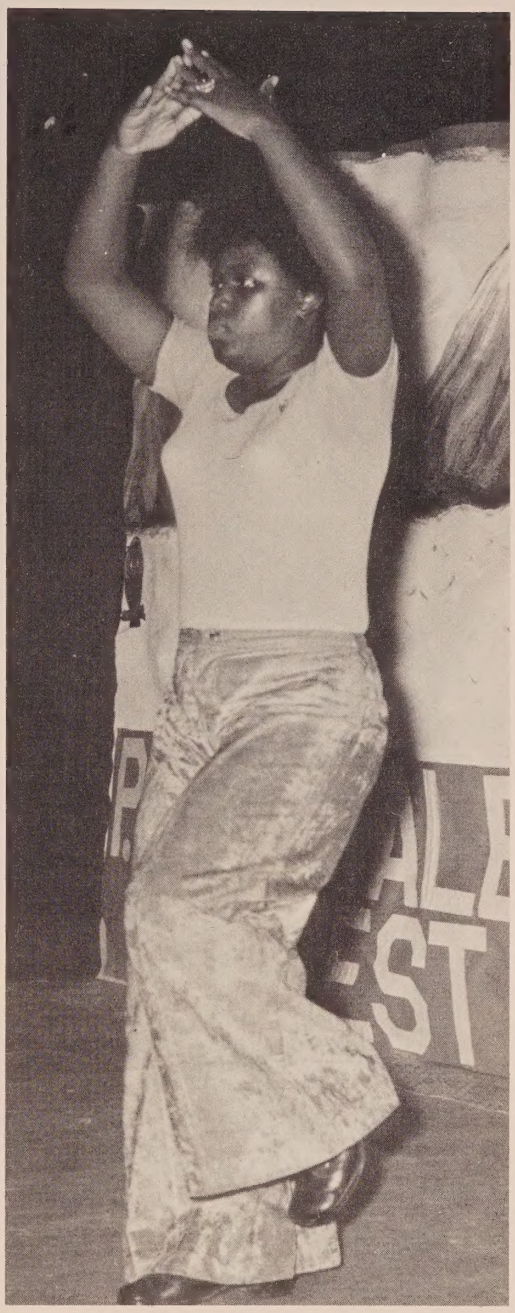
David Thoreau



"Nature knows no pause in progress and development, and attaches her curse on all inaction."

Tim Hayes and Vicky Harrison (top lt) of the 7th grade were crowned jr. high king and queen at the Vernon PTA talent contest. Eighth grade kings and queens are Donna McCall, escorted by Leonard Bailey, and James Brown with Odell Bell (top rt). The 7th grade's kings and queens are (above from lt to rt) Cindy Vieria, Tim Vaughn; Sarah Long, Tim Morrell; Vicky Harrison, Tim Hayes; Diana Mathis, Arthur Pettis.

On Halloween night we danced and sang the spooks away at the Vernon PTA talent contest. Along with the talent contest was the crowning of kings and queens. David Gasper and Marilyn Harrell (rt) won in the senior high school. The 11th grade kings and queens (below) are Ricky Chatwood - Penny Sapp, Michael Gasper - Becky Ward, and Durand Coatney - Teresa Passantino.



Ninth grade kings and queens (top) are Quinten Syfrett - Janice Register, Tommy Miles - Jodi Mathis, David Gasper - Marilyn Harrell and Greg Bass - Brenda Doyle. Becky Ward and Carolyn Hughes (center lt.) receive the runner-up trophy at the talent contest, on stage with the senior high king and queen. Craig Mathis and Teresa Dykes (center rt.) are 12-A king and queen. Marie Dunklin (above) did her own dance routine to "Outer Space." The 10th grade kings and queens (rt) are Doug Reddick - Debbie Thames, Keith Adkisson - Karen Corte, and Eddie Hard - Vicki Owens.

"Music is the harmonious"

voice of creation . . . ''

From Bach to ''rock'' they play it all. Under the direction of Mr. Reign Shipley (below) the Vernon High School Band provide us with half-time shows at each football game, play a major role in pep rallies and present concerts throughout the year. Drum Major Bill Shipley and Band Captain Allen Price have received superior ratings in the musical field.

The 1972 Homecoming week was filled with "What's the good Word?", spirit contests, an afternoon of silence, the Stingaree, the parade, and all done in preparation for the Game. Little Miss Yellow Jacket, Dawn Waller (below), rides in the Homecoming Parade. The alumni '52 and '62 (right) were not left out of the parade either. Sophomore homerooms 10B and 10C combined talents to take 1st place in senior high division with the float (bottom) that was a real crowd pleaser.

"Nature is too thin a screen; the glory of one breaks in everywhere."

Tina Santiago (top lt.) was crowned our '72 Homecoming Queen during half-time festivities. The FHA won 1st place in senior high club division with a beautifully designed float (top rt). Miss Vernon Sally Pelfrey rides in the parade.

Tina Santiago, with escort Durand Coatney, is being crowned Homecoming Queen for 1972 by Linda Keller, the 71 Queen. Moving clockwise are Teresa Dykes, 2nd runner-up, the senior float with Lucille Smith, Ann Bonasera, and Lamar Page. The Vernon crowd cheers the Jackets on. Our band leads the Homecoming parade.
